

Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG)

Make ESG Your Strength with Better Data Insights

The pressure you feel to perform on ESG is increasing from regulators, investors, boards of directors, supply chain partners, customers and even employees. Yet, without the right systems to collect data, and set and track goals, ESG can quickly overwhelm your team.

If you're new to ESG, or looking to scale your efforts to meet opportunities in your industry, VelocityEHS helps transform ESG from a burden into a competitive advantage. Deploy our ESG Software, and you'll quickly gain visibility into core ESG data while strategically aligning stakeholders across your enterprise.

Core Capabilities

- GHG & Energy Management
- Materiality Assessments
- Green Chemistry
- Utility Data Sync
- Performance Metrics
- Calculation Engine
- Pre-built Reporting for: Scope 1-3, CDP, SASB, GRI and more

"The next five years will be a pivotal time for organizations grappling with ESG, as they face key corporate challenges with mandatory reporting requirements and looming regulatory standards."

Julian Moffatt - VelocityEHS Principal Solution Strategist for ESG

Best in Class ESG Software:

Is collecting ESG data taking too much of your team's time; or worse, is it riddled with errors and hard to access?

Take control of your data and team bandwidth with an all-in-one system that aggregates and centralizes your information.

- Automate data collection & validation across sources and facilities
- Centralize information & stakeholder activity in a single system
- Harmonize data with advanced calculation engines
- Set auto-alerts for data that is past due or nearing threshold limits

Do you struggle to keep up with shifting reporting standards, formats and thresholds, let alone setting ESG strategy?

Work smarter with pre-built forms and reports, and custom factor libraries that keep pace with evolving conditions.

- Set, measure, monitor performance & waste reduction targets
- Analyze key metrics for energy, air, water, waste, GHGs + more
- Keep compliant with regularly updated custom-factor libraries
- Export data properly formatted for specific regulatory agencies

Are you tired of scrambling last minute to keep from going empty-handed into meetings on ESG with key stakeholders?

Turn ESG into a shared responsibility by making goals, targets and real-time status updates transparent and visible to all.

- Access your data anytime, anywhere, on any smart device
- Eliminate expensive custom reporting by third-party vendors
- Validate sustainability planning with critical environmental data
- Build trust in the C-Suite with ESG driven bottom-line-growth
