

Industrial Ergonomics

AI Powered Ergonomics: Achieve Instant Expertise

There is a silent threat in your workplace responsible for failing employee health, increased insurance premiums, absenteeism, turnover, decreased quality and efficiency, and loss of productivity.

Musculoskeletal disorder (MSD) risk is prevalent across work environments and involve your entire workforce.

VelocityEHS Industrial Ergonomics, part of the Accelerate Platform, empowers anyone through its sensorless motion-capture technology to conduct MSD risk assessments and identify specific risk causes and relevant controls with the precision and accuracy of an experienced ergonomist.

Core Capabilities

- Sensorless Motion Capture
- AI Driven Assessments
- Posture + Force Estimation
- Interactive Online Training
- Active Causes & Controls
- Risk & Root Cause Analysis
- Risk Reduction Results
- Privacy Controls (Blurring)
- Ergonomics Data-Library
- Dashboards & Reports

"Once I showed this system to our stakeholders, they could tell it was night and day different. Just the ease of the assessment process and the way the program's laid out, they could see how we determined what improvements needed to be made and what impact they had on the company."

Melissa Couch - Global Occupational Health Manager, Givaudan

Best-in-Class Ergonomics Software:

Are you skeptical that your current team has the necessary skills to launch a comprehensive industrial ergonomics program?

Scale up a sustainable program that allows any worker to identify and quantify MSD risks and expertly address them.

- Identify MSD root causes & controls via AI & machine learning
- Motion-capture real-time assessment data with phone camera
- Reduce errors with automated force allocation
- Build expertise via online training & expert-led sessions

Do you get nervous about workplace video recordings because of privacy issues or union & employee confidentiality concerns?

Proceed with confidence thanks to industry leading privacy controls that give you agency over proprietary information.

- Blur backgrounds & block operator's face when detected in video
- Protect intellectual property rights with location-based settings
- Comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- Assess standing or seated jobs as well as material handling tasks

Does it feel overwhelming just thinking about trying to prove the value or ROI of an enterprisewide ergonomics solution?

Relax, ergonomics is an engineering discipline, so measuring, analyzing and reporting are an essential part of the solution.

- Monitor team activities & track the status of improvement plans
- Share highly visual scoring & reporting with key stakeholders
- Analyze real-time trends, findings, & benefits via dashboards
- Categorize & push issues upstream to "design out" risk
